Thistles in the Heart.

Bad habits are the thistles of the heart and every indulgent of them is equal. The Improved has new vegea seed from which will spring a new table tonic properties; restores grey crop of weeds. A few years ago a hair to glossy, natural color; restores, little boy told his first falsehood. It dresses, gives vigor to the hair; rewas a little solitary thistle seed, and removes dandruff, humors, scaly crupno eye but God's saw him as he tions; removes irritation, itching and planted it in the mellow soil of the scaly dryness. No article produces heart. But it sprung up, oh, how such wonderful effects. Try it, call for quickly! and in a little time another seed dropped from it to the ground, Sold by all druggists in this place and each in its turn bearing more seed and dealers everywhere. Trade supplied more thistles. And now his heart at manufacturer's prices by C. A. Cook is overgrown with this bad habit. It is as difficult for him to speak the truth as it is for the gardener to clear Winter & Co., Louisville. Now is the his land of the ugly thistles, after it time to buy your new Overcoat and has once gained a footing in the soil.
